

The Reverend
Andrew B. Terry
Pastor,
St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Andrew Terry grew up in Metropolitan Richmond. He first came to Church Hill in 2002 to volunteer with the Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club. In 2005, he moved into Richmond Hill on East Grace Street where he eventually served as co-pastor.

While at Richmond Hill, Andrew worked with Summer Camp on the Hill, a summer camp serving children from the five elementary schools in Church Hill, and the Armstrong High School Leadership Program. He also worked with RVA Rapid Transit, an initiative to bring region-wide public transportation to metropolitan Richmond.

Andrew earned a bachelor's degree in religious studies from the College of William and Mary and a Masters of Divinity from Virginia Theological Seminary. He was ordained priest in 2012.

Together with his wife Tiffany and son Langston, Andrew lives in the Church Hill neighborhood.
